

LLM in International Finance: Law and Regulation
Truman Bodden Law School of the Cayman Islands
Prospective Schedule

The LLM and the PGDip are work-friendly study programmes, with lessons scheduled in the early evening.

A tentative scheduled for year 2022-2023 is the below:

Semester I (60 credits)

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday
Legal Aspects of International Finance I	International Banking and Capital Flows	Advanced Research Skills / International Dispute Resolution	Conflict of Laws

Semester II (60 credits)

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday
Legal Aspects of International Finance II	The Law of Public-Private Partnerships	Equity, the Trust and Commerce	International Insolvency Law

Please be advised that this represents only the contact hours. This schedule does not reflect time for lecture and tutorial preparation, research tasks, assessment preparation and any other Law School related commitments.